DIVORCE FOR MRS. WILDER.

Wife of Burlington Physician Gets Decree and Custody of Child.

Burlington, July 12.—Judge Z. S. Stanton yesterday rendered a decision in the famous divorce case of Helen A. Wilder vs. Dr. Henry L. Wilder, which was tried at the spring term of Chittenden county court, a bill being granted to the petitioner, Mrs. Wilder.

The care and custody of the minor child is given to Mrs. Wilder, and the father will have the right to visit the child alone at all reasonable times. He will also have the right to take the child away with him during two days of every month, if he so desires. Exceptions were allowed the libellee.

The case was brought on the grounds of adultery, a girl employed at the Wilder home being named as co-respondent. A letter produced in court, in which Dr. Wilder confessed to illegal relations with the girl, and which he testified was not the truth, probably helped to make the case a difficult one to decide.
